Lt. Pankow was one who was fully aware of what lay ahead of him, but who was unswerving in his loyalty to his country as is evident from a letter written by him to his folks on March 26th, 1944.

"Soon....I do not know how soon....I shall have to demonstrate not only how much or how well I have learned the art of killing, but also how well I have taught that abominable art to others."

"I know what's ahead. It won't be another pleasure trip, but though it may cost me my life, I wouldn't want to miss it"

"Should I be among the many who inevitably must fall, remember that I didn't go forth without realizing the possibility that I might lose my life. Remember, too, that I give my life willingly, that I do out of love for my country and all its people....even the traitors and selfish slackers."

"If I should die on the battlefield, I beg you to leave my body there....Some day our government may provide you the opportunity to visit my grave. If so, avail yourself of that opportunity."

The memorial service will be in charge of the Rev. G. C. Michael, the sermon being based on Isaiah 57, 1-2. Miss Lucille Prochnow will preside at the organ. The Lutheran 'In Memoriam' scroll furnished by our Army-Navy Commission will also be presented. The public is cordially invited to attend.

DEATH FOLLOWS GASOLINE BURNS

Mrs. Ervin Prochnow Victim of Tragic Accident on Saturday Morning

The exploding of a jug of high test gasoline caused the death of Mrs. Ervin Prochnow several hours after the accident at the Providence Hospital in Hankinson Saturday.

Mrs. Prochnow had generated two irons preparatory to doing some ironing. She had filled the irons from a jug of gasoline and when she lifted the container the bottom fell out and the explosive liquid ignited immediately from the flames in the irons.

The lady was engulfed in flames immediately. Her son, Delbert and Willis, who were in the room, went to her rescue, and were burned attempting to get the flaming clothes from their mother. The lady, however, suffered severe burns before this could be done. Mrs. Prochnow was taken to the hospital in Hankinson, where she was given treatment, but medical aid was of no avail and she passed away at 9:15 o'clock Saturday night.

Mrs. Prochnow was taken to the hospital by her daughter, Dorine, one of the ladies at the home when the accident occurred. Two other daughters-in-law, Mrs. Delbert and Mrs. Willis Prochnow were also at home, the latter two being at work in the adjoining room.

Fire, resulting from the burning gas, ignited the kitchen, and the young people fought the flames with milk, which was on hand following the morning's milking, confining the damaged to the kitchen.

The obituary of Mrs. Ervin Prochnow is continued on another page of this paper.

PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES DIED IN WARM SPRINGS, GA., TODAY

Message That Victory Was Near Received Before Death Occurred

SIXTH PRESIDENT TO SERVE DURING MAJOR WARS

Funeral Services Set For Saturday

+ + + + + + + + + +

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS DEAD. That is the word that came over the radios of the nation, shocking and bewildering our millions of citizens. The message was difficult to believe, but continued repeating convinced the people that President Franklin Delano Roosevelt has passed on to the Heavenly Kingdom.

Death came to our President at 2:30 PM., in his favorite resting place at Warm Springs, GA., where he had gone to rest from his arduous wartime duties. The President was expecting to speak to the nation in a day or two, but was taken suddenly ill at noon and before his physician could arrive had passed into a comma and passed away just a few minutes later.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was 64 years of age. Throughout his life he held many important public offices and from Governor of New York was elevated to the Presidency. He was elected to this later office during the depression of 1928 to 1933, and instituted reforms throughout every branch of the government.

Successively the electorate re-elected him to the Nation's highest office in 1936, 1940 and 1944. He had served for thirteen years when taken in death.

War was thrust upon the country by Japan during his third term in office, and under his guidance the nation converted from peace to war, and a few hours before his demise word from the battlefronts told that victory in Europe was a matter of a few days away; and on the other side of the world victory was assured for American Arms.

The sad news of the President's death was sent to his four sons in the Armed Forces by Mrs. Roosevelt. President Roosevelt was the Nations sixth war time president. Others were Washington, Jackson, Lincoln, McKinley and Wilson. Even as in the case of Abraham Lincoln's death at the close of war, our Nation will also suffer because President Roosevelt's last days were spent in planning for the peace that is soon to come into the world.

The body of the late President will be moved to Washington, where it will lie in state, and then be taken to Hyde Park, the Roosevelt home, for burial. Funeral services, tentative, have been set for Saturday.

Harry S. Truman, of Missouri, Vice President, has been sworn in and is now President of the United States. He has announced that he will continue the policies inaugurated by his predecessor.

PFC. ALLEN STEIN KILLED IN ACTION

Twin Brother on Okinawa, Writes Father First Word of Occurrence

MEMORIAL SERVICE WILL BE HELD JULY 22 IN CITY

Another Hankinson member of the Armed Forces of the Nation has made the supreme sacrifice, Pfc. Allen G. Stein, son of Mr. Ed Stein, of this city.

Word of this was received from the War Department, the message saying:

"The Secretary of War has asked me to express his deep regret that your son, Pfc. Allen G. Stein, was killed in action on Okinawa, June 15th, 1945; Confirming letter follows. Witsell, Adjutant."

This however, was not the first notification Mr. Stein had had of the death of his son. Pfc. Allen's twin brother, Arnold, who served in the same Infantry Regiment wrote to his father from Okinawa, stating that his brother had lost his life on June 12th, 1945. He said "not to expect Allen to come back. I was up there and I know. I feel so terrible about it." This message was received about two weeks before the official notice.

Allen was inducted last fall, and after only a few weeks training in Texas was sent as a replacement to the 17th Inf., Co. F, and he was with this twin brother, Arnold, when they were sent into the battle for Okinawa, where they fought until nearly the end of that terrible campaign.

In this battle, Arnold, was wounded and was hospitalized, but returned to the front later. Another brother, Edward, is now in the Army, stationed in California.

Allen G. Stein was born May 14th, 1926, in Hankinson and was confirmed at the Evangelical & Reformed Church in Hankinson by Rev. Meyer. He attended the Hankinson schools, from which he graduated and shortly after entered the Armed Forces.

Surviving are his father, the two brothers named above and four sisters, Mildred, Verna, Leona and Lora. His mother preceded him in death when he was a small child.

YOUTH DIED IN ACCIDENT

One of the most tragic accidents to happen in the community in a long time occurred Friday afternoon when David Gabbert suffered a mortal wound when a shot gun he was evidently taking from his car accidentally discharged. The charge of the gun struck him in the shoulder.

The accident happened in the yard at his home, while all members of the family were away. David, although desperately wounded, got into the car and attempted to drive to the Pribbernow home. Enroute his car became mired in a field a short ways from his home. He left the car and started to walk but the terrible wound prevented him from doing so. Men working on Norman Pribbernow's hanger he was building for an airplane, saw the injured man, and Nick Wagner, who was passing in his car, picked up the lad and took him to the Pribbernow farm where he was placed in their car, and brought to town, by Norman Pribbernow. Dr. Beithon who had been notified of the accident, gave immediate medical attention. Death ensued a few hours later.

Enroute to town David said he had attempted to take the gun from the car when it was discharged. He was able to transfer from the Wagner car and walk into the physician's office when he arrived in town, but the terrible wound had taken a toll in blood and shock.

Funeral services were held at the Lutheran Church in Hankinson, Monday afternoon for David Frank Gabbert, who died in Hankinson last Friday, March 29th, several hours after having been accidentally shot by a ten gauge shotgun.

He was born March 15th, 1929, in Greendale Township to William and Susanna Gabbert. He was received into the Lutheran Church by the rite of baptism shortly thereafter, and confirmed in the same church last year.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing parents, his brothers Lawrence, Louis and Warren and his sister, Ione, all of Hankinson. He was the second youngest child.

A brief service for the immediate family was held in the home and interment was in the Lutheran Cemetery north of Hankinson.

The sheriff's office informs The NEWS today that no clues had been found concerning the party who left the newly born baby in Wahpeton on Sunday. Funeral services for the child were held in Wahpeton Wednesday.

+ + + + +

An abandoned baby boy found on the Otto Witt home doorstep in Wahpeton early Sunday, died the same day at 10:45 at a hospital, where it had been placed in an incubator.

Mr. and Mrs. Witt discovered the child about 8 AM., Sunday, carelessly wrapped in a packing box. The baby was still alive, though apparently suffering from exposure.

Chief of Police George Swenson and Sheriff M. O. Peterson took the baby to the hospital where a physician said the child was from six to seven days old. He later pronounced death due to exposure.

The blonde boy lay in a crude packing box which bore no markings except: "Sold Halvorson, $2.98." Under this pencil writing was the figure four inscribed in a circle.

Among the clothes in the box was a young woman's coat, badly frayed, but a size 10 or 12. All labels had been removed. There was a crocheted scarf, a small child's dress and an out-going flannel slip, a baby band, and a child's sweater. A dirty blanket and a doll slip of flannel, completed the garments.

The clothing was black from dirt. The box measured 16 x 14 x 8, and was probably placed on the doorstep of the Witt home sometime during the night. They heard no outcry.
